III 次の英文を読んで設問に答えなさい。

The government wants to attract more foreign tourists to visit museums and other cultural facilities throughout Japan, so it's decided to write a new law, said people (13) knew about the plan on Dec. 16.

The law would let the government give subsidies to facilities to improve access. The aim would be to increase the number of tourists to (14) areas and promote Japanese culture and history, they said.

The facilities would also get money for improvements such as Wi-Fi reception, multilingual services and (15) payments for tickets, the sources said.

The government hopes the law will help the number of foreign visitors (16) 40 million in 2020 and 60 million in 2030.

It will choose around 25 places across the country for the subsidies. The first year's budget will be around ¥2 billion, the sources said. The government expects to give the Diet a bill for the scheme in January, they said.

IV 次の英文を読んで設問に答えなさい。

Valentine's Day has become a global event that's celebrated around the world! It's the (19) romantic day of the year, a festival of love marked with cards, kisses, gifts and flowers. It's celebrated with (20) in Japan, poetry in Denmark, candlelight dinners in the United States and weddings in the Philippines. Unfortunately, not everyone likes Valentine's Day. It has (21) banned in conservative countries such as Iran, Pakistan and Malaysia, and couples have (21) harassed or arrested for celebrating it in India and Saudi Arabia.

Valentine's Day began as a romantic day for lovers when men and women confessed (22). It has expanded into a day where people show (22) to family and friends, and where children exchange (22) at school for fun.

A growing number of people see Valentine's Day as a chance to "share the love" more widely by (23) money to charity, (23) refugees or (23) to help those less fortunate.

Valentine's Day is a chance for us to spread joy and happiness. Music can point the way. Listen to Jackie DeShannon's hit song, What the World Needs Now Is Love. Or take the advice offered by Carole King in her song Beautiful: "You've got to get up every morning with a smile on your face and show the world all the love in your heart."

Please enjoy Valentine's Day and share your love with those around you. But don't eat too much chocolate!

T: I'm very sorry to hear about that, Anthony. On behalf (27) Japan Holdings, I apologize for the trouble with your products, as well as for the (28) packaging. Just to confirm, you were sent the wrong items and those items were broken?

A: That's right. We can't sell any of this. My manager is thinking that it would be in our best interest to take our business elsewhere.

T: (inner thoughts) I need to think fast! I can offer you a 20% discount, as well as personally see to the packaging of your items if you will allow us to replace them for you.

A: A 20% discount, you say?

T: Absolutely.

A: Okay, see that you do and we will consider continuing our business relationship.

T: Of course. Again, my sincerest apologies for all of the trouble.
